DECLINE IN LAST HOUR

Market Strong and Animated at the Opening.

DULL FIRMNESS FOLLOWS

Absorptive Power Was Exhausted by the Spurt, and General Decline Was Gaused by Professional Profit

Taking Near the Olese. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, June 29.—Three were almost as many shares of steeks that changed hands during the first hour of trading to-day as there were for the first two hours in the newly wakened activity of the previous day smarket. This first hour of trading had every appearance of animation and well sustained strength but the absorptily power of the market was protty well exhausted by this spurt, and the dull beriod of firmness, which followed, give way in the last hour to a general define under professional profit taking. The slight fluctuations during the first hour, in view of the decided activity gave sufficient warning that profit taking was going on. This morning's pushasers, however, had less success when jety attempted to take their profits in the last hour. The day's net changes show very small gains left for any of the seculative leaders and some of them were below last night under the selling of the last hour. Yesterday's heavy buying and sharp upward movement in Readig, was sufficiently explained by the statment of net earnings for May showing an increase for all the commanies over the corresponding month of last year of $1.429,072. This showing gives color the current rumors that dividends woulk be commenced on the second preferred stock. Combined with the continuing effect of the success of the Pennsylvank stock subscription, the coal carrying fall roads were made every streng for a dine. Meantime, in another department of the list the Wabas of the Pennsylvank stock subscription, the disappoint of the success of the sucremany for the surplus s

Wall Street Gossip.

Appelal to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEF YORK, June 30.—The strength shown in Lefon and the active specifiction developed among the more important trading interests on the bit side were sufficient to ensure a higher opening. London was a fair buyer from the start, ad although commission house business was light there was at least enough of it is induenc trading, which could hardly be said in the jat week or so.

THE FAST HOUR:

Price held remarkably well in the first hour, abough after opening strength they were somewit inclined to check. General street sentimal was builth, but there could be questio that long stock was coming out in quantiti on the accance. London was a good buyer. The floor taders seemed to be selling a littlestock for a jurn.

THE SECOND HOUR'S TRADING:

The market became simewhat more professional in the second how, although it mainstained its strength very fairly. The Waldorf crowd, however, seemed h be selling some of the stock bought on Monda; and the volume of commission house business was rather light. London was an important factor and did a good deal to sustain the early barket.

There was a decidedly wisk bull account in the Wabash issues, and especially the debenture B's.

THE CLOSING:

The harding of the money rat to some extent checked the market in the hast hour, although the day's advances went fairly, well maintained. The active traders, lowever, sold a fair amount of stock before the close. Commission house trading was light throughout, but showed some improvement on the business of the last few weeks.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN

Cotton Is Very Generally I mproved, But Continues Late.

But Continues Late.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 30.—The Weather Bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions says:

The condition of cotton is very generally improved throughout the belt, but continues late, and is suffering for cultivation in the Eastern districts, where low night temperatures have checked growth. Lice and rust have caused some damage in North Carolina and Missouri, and in Texas the boil weevil are spreading and are more injurious. The crop also is suffeing for cultivation in pertions of Louisiana and Central and Northern Texas. Sunshine and heat generally are needed, especially in the Eastern and Central districts.

In the tobacco districts the weather conditions have been very favorable for this crop, which, however, is in need of cultivation in Maryland.

The Declaration of Independence to Be

The Declaration of Independence to Be Read in the Original.

CHARLOTTESVILLI, VA., June 39.—
A basket plenic will be held at the Jefferson Monument on the 4th of July, to hear for the first time in the history of the nexion the full text of the Declaration of Independence, as Mr. Jefferson wrote it, before it was marred of its most splendid and withering count in the indictment of George III, on the African slave trade and threat to arm the negroes against their masters.

Jefferson and Lincoln will be compared, and Jefferson's opinion of Lincoln for doing this will be derived from this clause by substituting the name of Lincoln for that of the king.

This clause was struck out at the instance of slave-trading New England.
The Declaration will be read by Captain Micajah Woods and the oration pronounced by G. W. M. Sims, of San Antonio, Texas. The same oration will be delivered July 4th, 1994, at the Lincoln monument at Springfield, Illinois.

CHARLESTONIANS ENTERTAIN GERMANS

(ily Associated Press.)
CHARLESTON, S. C., June 30.—Count Von Orioia and officers of the German cruiser Gazelle, now at this port, were entertained at an elaborate hanquet tonight by the German Freundschaftsbund of Charleston. This society is similar to the Liederkranz, of New York, and was organized in 1832. It is composed of frominent Germans of Charleston, is a distinctively social organization, and has a national reputation, its president, E. H. Johns, wears the German Iron Cross for services in the Franco-German war, George Luns, vice-president, acted as toastmaster to-night and made an eloquent address in German.
